

ATAWorld

Creating Tomorrow's Leaders...One Black Belt at a Time

ATA of Marlboro, NJ on TLC's "Table for 12"

Nov 10, 8:30 pm
(30 minutes)

Table for 12 Episode : "Take A Bow" TV-PG

For a family of ten, there always seems to be drama. Watch as the kids perform on stage and in the gym as Kyle and Meghan participate in drama camp and the sextuplets go to karate class at ATA Martial Arts of Marlboro, NJ.

VISIT TLC.COM FOR TV LISTING TIMES

TLC's series TABLE FOR 12, which follows the endearing Hayes family in New Jersey, returns with all new back-to-back episodes Tuesday, November 10 at 8 PM and 8:30PM ET/PT.

Eric and Betty Hayes, the parents of three sets of multiples, definitely have their hands full this fall, but always manage to laugh through the stressful times. Throughout the rest of the season, viewers will share in this family's journey and will experience a number of their adventures including the sextuplets' preschool graduation, Eric's SWAT police training, and attempting to coordinate a charity walk, a baseball game, and a party for 50 of Betty's closest friends all in one day!

HAYES FAMILY AT ATA MARLBORO

Instructor:
Laurie McInerney

ABOUT THE HAYES FAMILY

Eric and Betty's brood consists of 13-year-old twin boys Kevin and Kyle, 11-year-old twins Kieran and Meghan, and 5-year-old sextuplets Tara, Rachel, Ryan, Connor, EJ and Rebecca. Eric a funny and dynamic police officer, and Betty a modest and loving stay-at-home mom, are admired and praised by their family and friends. Viewers will learn quickly that there's never a dull moment in the Hayes' household.

(Press Release provided by TLC)